

New Bedford Whaling National Historical Park

Frederick Douglass Birthday Bash!

Celebrate Frederick Douglass' 192nd birthday with a fun-filled day of activities including; guest storytellers, costumed historical characters, children's activities, special movie showings, exhibits, and a live program broadcast from the Frederick Douglass National Historic Site in Washington DC.

February 14, 2010
Corson Maritime
Learning Center
33 William Street,
New Bedford
12:00 - 4:30 p.m.

Storyteller Derek Burrows (left) presents Stories of Slavery and Freedom

Poetry Readings by Everett Hoagland

Ruth and Abby (costumed historical characters) present children's activities

The premiere of the park's new TV series Exploring the Home Port

And Much More!